PW Fall Gathering Update

PW Fall Gathering will be at Oil City First on Saturday, October 23rd.
The theme will be “Three Cups of Tea” - a Story of Hope.

At the Gathering you will

- Connect with fellow PWs.
- Participate in spirit-filled worship – we will be singing!
- Learn more about our new Synod Mission Project.
- Go to workshops – including * NEW THIS GATHERING * a book discussion on Three Cups of Tea by Greg Mortenson & David Oliver Relin. Please read the book before the gathering if you want to participate in this workshop.
- Other workshops will include making a craft as an outreach project for a local mission and Tips and Ideas to keep your PW energized!
- Share a meal and conversation with old and new friends.
- Pray – open our hearts to God. “Out of the believer’s heart shall flow rivers of living water.” John 7:38 (on the cover of the 2010 Mission Yearbook of Prayer)

We are in the final planning stages for the Fall Gathering. A flyer with all the details will be coming soon in our next issue of the Wave! Please plan to attend and be sure you talk with other women about attending. Copy the Wave and pass it out to the women of your congregation. See you in Oil City!
